DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 2-4, 6, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims are non-statutory because they are not concrete and tangible since there is no nexus recited in the claims with technology. (It is noted that this is a new rejection being made based on a Board decision. It can be overcome, for instance, simply by reciting a computer in the independent claim.)

The examiner notes that the claims have been amended to recite that the method is operable via a computer, but this recitation does not serve as a concrete nexus with the computer, but simply states that the method is such that it can be used with a computer.
